WEEK 2 SMALL GROUP GUIDE

THIS SERIES

In a culture obsessed with selfies, celebrities, money, and success, it's not difficult to understand why so many of us struggle with being a little self-centered at times. But while "me first" may the norm for the rest of the world, Jesus showed us what it looks like to live a generous, compassionate, selfless, "after you" kind of life. In this 4-week series, you'll challenge students to move away from the world's "me first" attitude and embrace the "after you" message of Jesus by noticing needs, opening their hands, using their gifts, and sharing their joy.

THIS WEEK

THE BIG IDEATHE BIBLELiving selflessly requiresopening your hands.Luke 10:25-37I John 3:16-18

- What's your favorite convenience? In what way does it cost someone something?
- Have you ever ignored someone who was in need? What happened?
- If you had helped that person, how would it have inconvenienced you? If you could go back in time, what would you do differently?
- How could you be more open-handed with your time?
- How could you be more open-handed with your money?
- Is there anyone you've been ignoring because of the differences between you? What are those differences?
- How could you be more open to the people you've been ignoring?
- How could your life be different if you lived more open-handedly?
- Read I John 3:16-18. What can we learn or apply from this passage?
- This week, how will you be more intentional about opening your hands to others?
