

WEEK 2

SMALL GROUP GUIDE

HEAR ME

ROAR

THIS SERIES

We've all heard it before. "Be bold!" "Don't be ashamed!" "Take a stand!" But let's be honest. Being bold about your faith can be awkward, intimidating, or just plain terrifying—especially when you're a teenager who's already feeling pressure to be liked and accepted. In this 4-week series, you'll acknowledge that challenge, then encourage students to grow in their boldness as you walk through a few key stories in the book of Daniel. These four stories help us see that being bold begins when we fill up on God, surround ourselves with like-minded people, choose peace even when it's difficult, and practice boldness consistently.

THIS WEEK

THE BIG IDEA

Be bold together.

THE BIBLE

Daniel 3; Hebrews 10:24

- Have you ever had to take a stand for something? What was it?
- Have you ever failed to take a stand for something and later regretted it? What happened?
- You'll probably never be forced to bow down to a gigantic gold statue, but what's one way you might be pressured to compromise your beliefs?
- You'll probably never be thrown into an enormous furnace, but what's one risk you might have to take when you're being bold for God?
- What are some of the key characteristics of those people?
- Talk about a time a friend helped you be bolder in your faith.
- Talk about a time you helped someone else be bolder in their faith.
- Why is being bold easier when you're not alone?
- Read Hebrews 10:24. What can this passage teach us about being bold in our faith?
- This week, how are you going to be bolder together?
